

GARRAN COMMUNITY CHRISTMAS CAROLS

The Festival of Christmas in conjunction with the local Garran businesses will be held on Tuesday the 12th December between 6 and 8 pm on the grassed area at the back of the Garran shops.

There will be a sausage sizzle, entertainment by Alopi and the Palermo Express (a local Garran resident), face painting and Christmas decoration making for the kiddies, the Garran Primary School and some local talent to sing Christmas Carols, and of course some Irish dancers to do a Christmas jig.

There will also be Christmas stalls for you to buy home-made Christmas Cakes, taste and order your Christmas ham and other Christmassy goodies for you to fill your stockings.

And, of course Santa will put in a very anticipated appearance to get the children all hyped for the big day.

Come along, bring a chair or a rug and bring your Christmas cheer so we can all celebrate and sing along together with the local Garran Community.
